REMARKS

The Examiner is thanked for the thorough examination of the present application. The Examiner is also thanked for the telephonic interview of September 19, 2008 wherein the prior art and potential claim amendments to further define over the prior art were discussed. To advance prosecution, independent Claims 1, 12, 18, 24, and 29 have been amended to include subject matter from dependent Claims 8, 16, 22, 28, and 33, respectively. More particularly, the independent claims have been amended to recite that the at least one common core service module connected to the proxy modules comprises a renderer module for cooperating with the proxy modules to format data for the plurality of mobile wireless communications devices. The Examiner indicated that the independent claims, with the above-noted claim amendments, would define over the Sharma et al. reference. Dependent Claims 8, 16, 22, 28, and 33 have been cancelled, and dependent Claims 9, 17, and 23 have been amended for consistency.

The Examiner rejected dependent Claims 8, 16, 22, 28, and 33 over Sharma et al. Sharma et al. fails to disclose at least one common core service module connected to the proxy modules and comprising a renderer module for cooperating with the proxy modules to format data for the plurality of mobile wireless communications devices, as agreed by the Examiner. Accordingly, it is submitted that independent Claims 1, 12, 18, 24, and 29 are patentable over the prior art. Their respective dependent claims, which recite yet further distinguishing features, are also patentable over the prior art and require no further discussion herein.

In view of the amendments presented above, it is submitted that all of the claims are patentable. Accordingly, a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested in due course. Should any minor informalities need to be addressed, the Examiner is encouraged to contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
